

TE5.04 Follow up Contacts

(4 hours)

Apprentice:	Trainer:	Completed: / /
-------------	----------	-------------------

This is the work of following through on those with whom we share the gospel. Most people come to Christ over gradually over time, and we need the patience and skills to develop friendship, answer questions, provide further learning opportunities and sometimes just wait and be available.

Exercise

Follow up evangelistic contacts.

Aims

1. To develop various strategies to keep exposing people to the gospel and Christian people.
2. To be organised and faithful in follow-up.
3. To take a long term interest in people.

Apprentices

1. Use books, online articles and talk MP3's in follow-up.
2. Show hospitality and build friendship.
3. Invite contacts to church and Bible study meetings.
4. Meet contacts for regular Bible reading through a book of the Bible.
5. Introduce contacts to Christian friends and groups.

Trainers

Assess these competencies:

- Use of books, online articles and MP3's in follow-up.
- Offering of hospitality and friendship.
- Ability to get contacts to church and Bible study meetings.
- Skills in one-to-one Bible reading with contacts through a book of the Bible.
- Introduction of contacts to Christian friends and groups.

Resources

A Fresh Start, John Chapman (Matthias Media)
A Sneaking Suspicion, John Dickson (Matthias Media)
A Hell of a Life, John Dickson (Matthias Media)
The True and Living God, Kim Hawtrey (Matthias Media)
Pure Sex, Phillip Jensen and Tony Payne (Matthias Media)