Description of ministry.

The Cudgegong Valley Parish is a large rural parish in the Bathurst Diocese. The Apprentice will be trained by the Assistant Priest, with further mentorship and guidance from the Rector. There are also many faithful lay ministers and laymen in the parish who will offer discipleship, wisdom and fellowship. The Apprentice will be well supported, with many opportunities across the parish for ministry, including SRE, youth group, young adults, bible study leading, service leading, preaching and evangelism. There will also be opportunities to observe and learn how to officiate weddings, baptisms and funerals.
