Description of ministry.

APC is a growing reformed evangelical church who is exploring how to repopulate Adelaide with Pressy churches after a rough century. The apprentice will get hands on experience in church growth transition between church sizes, facilitate and support the creation of a new congregation and the beginning stages on the creation of a church planting network, whilst supporting the local AFES group on campus. The apprentice wil be working with the staff team to get a broad understanding of the various components of ministry.
