Description of ministry.

Everhope Church is a confessionally Lutheran church, with a uniquely suburban Australian familiarity. Our slogan 'a down to earth church' reflects both our sacramental 'God to us' theology and also the approachability of our community. Want to see God raise up men and women whose natural giftings have been leveraged for ministry impact, have developed a fire in their belly for leading God's people, while having their gifts and passion underpinned by education in good doctrine. Alongside learning pastoral care and general ministry skills, the incoming Apprentice will have an area of responsibility suited to their giftings, whether youth, children, operations, or even church planting.
