About Us

MTS is a multidenominational evangelical organisation that, under God, is seeking to change the world. MTS multiplies Gospel workers through ministry apprenticeships. MTS has trained over 3,200 apprentices since 1978 and wants to accelerate the pace. Our Trainers are mission critical to recruiting Gospel workers.

The Vision of MTS is:

‘To win the world for Christ by multiplying Gospel Workers through ministry apprenticeships.’

The Mission of MTS is:

‘To raise up, train and resource MTS Trainers, as they multiply Gospel Workers through ministry apprenticeships.’

About the Role

MTS believes that MTS Trainers are mission critical to reaching Australia (& the nations) with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, because they pray Matthew 9:38 prayers and devote themselves to the 2 Timothy 2:2 work of entrusting the Gospel to reliable people who are able to teach others. MTS Trainers are the hub of the MTS movement.

The Director of Training will be an enthusiastic, mission-minded and theologically trained person, who prayerfully devotes themselves to bringing the MTS Vision and Mission to fruition.

Working closely with the National Director, the Director of Training will build volunteer teams to oversee all the activities that “help MTS Trainers do what they do”.

The Director of Training is responsible for the quality of ministry training delivered by MTS’ Trainers to MTS’ Apprentices.

The Director of Training will have a unique opportunity to mould the character, skills and style of Christian leaders that will be produced in Australia, and beyond, for generations to come.

Ministry Training Strategy

About You

We're looking for someone who:

- is humble and Gospel astonished, that Christ would die for them (1 Peter 3:18)
- is thoroughly committed to living out the great commission (Matthew 28:18-20).
- is a Christ like, servant hearted leader (Mark 10:45) who is wary of celebrity status and power.
- can build, inspire and lead teams of gifted volunteers.
- has trained one or more MTS apprentices.
- is theologically trained.
- loves working in a team and is an encourager by nature.
- has an 'influence and inspiration' ministry mindset, not a 'command and control' way of working.
- is a very good listener.
- is able to implement Key Strategies. They can bring existing plans to fruition.
- has commitment to the MTS Conviction Statement.
